

The Great Bread Mystery

The year is 1849. Thousands of fortune hunters are arriving over land and sea in search of gold. San Francisco, their new city, has a few buildings, and lots of tents, hopes and dreams.

In this city of dreams, in a tiny shop on Dupont Street, the Boudin family is making classic-styled French bread that has a tangy flavor with a dark-golden, crunchy crust and soft, chewy center.

What is the secret that makes Boudin bread so special and delicious? To solve the mystery break the secret code using the letter key below.

Clue:

RG'H	GSV	NLGSVI	WLFTS
A = Z	B = Y	C = X	D = W
E = V	F = U	G = T	H = S
I = R	J = Q	K = P	L = O
M = N	N = M	O = L	P = K
Q = J	R = I	S = H	T = G
U = F	V = E	W = D
X = C	Y = B	Z = A
